

APPENDIX H – COMPARATIVE CHART OF CONTESTED POSTWAR OFFICE BUILDINGS

Building	Criteria	Large range of typical characteristics	Intactness ground level	Intactness upper level	Legibility as postwar modernist building	Commissioned building for occupant (Gray consideration for D)	Named building	Architect designed (Gray consideration for D)	Notable features/ relevant history/ higher quality	Recognition (Gray consideration for D)
Nubrik House	A, D, E	Raworth agreed	Raworth agreed	Raworth agreed	Raworth agreed	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes, loadbearing brick	Yes
516 Collins	A, D	Gray agreed	Not intact	Gray agreed	Gray agreed	No	No	No	Debated	No
Dalgety House	A, D	Trethowan agreed	Not intact	Trethowan agreed	Trethowan agreed	Yes	Yes	Yes	Debated	Wolfgang Sievers
Cowan House	A, D, E	Trethowan agreed	Trethowan disagreed	Trethowan agreed	Trethowan agreed	Not really	Yes	Yes	Debated	No
Reserve Bank	A, D	Yes	Not intact	Partial	Raworth agreed	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes, bank history	Yes
MLC	A, D	Disputed	Not intact	Raworth agreed	Raworth agreed	Yes	Yes	Disputed	Yes, curved form	Yes
CML	A, D, E	Raworth agreed 'it's a number' in response to	Retains important elements	Partial	Raworth agreed	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes, sculpture and plaza	Yes

Building	Criteria	Large range of typical characteristics	Intactness ground level	Intactness upper level	Legibility as postwar modernist building	Commissioned building for occupant (Gray consideration for D)	Named building	Architect designed (Gray consideration for D)	Notable features/ relevant history/ higher quality	Recognition (Gray consideration for D)
		'is it a large number?'
178 William	A, D	Raworth agreed	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	No	Yes	Possibly – load bearing precast concrete panels and sloped sills	No