RECONCILIATION ACTION JOURNEY PLAN 2011 - 2014

The City of Melbourne is proud to have been the first local Australian government to implement a Reconciliation Action Plan back in 2006.

The City of Melbourne is proud to make a commitment to fully support reconciliation. We seek to understand and embrace reconciliation within our organisation, and to encourage reconciliation across the city, and through our connections nationally and internationally.

RELATIONSHIPS

Positive relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are important to the City of Melbourne because that leads to inclusive actions that are in line with our aspirations.

So we:

- Host events such as and NAIDOC Week
- Consult with traditional owners on projects and developments.

Respect for Aboriginal and Torres

Strait Islander people is integral to reconciliation – strong relationships

the City of Melbourne's vision for at our events

are built on mutual respect.

RESPECT

This means we:

- on Melbourne Town Hall
- Action Plan 2012-15
- Ask all new City of Melbourne staff

OPPORTUNITIES

The City of Melbourne recognises that creating opportunities to engage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people is an import step in the reconciliation journey.

So we now have:

- 2012 and 2014
