100083	MCC Baby Health Centre	505-513 Abbotsford Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	A single-storey interwar brick and roughcast render interwar building, built as a Melbourne City Council Baby Health Care Centre in c. 1925. It is distinguished by its domestic scale and form, typical for such centres, a large roughcast render side entrance portico (with entrance now infilled with glazing) with nameplate "MCC BABY HEALTH CENTRE". Although it has been altered by the addition of a front verandah and new door openings in windows, its early form can still be understood. The property has historical significance for the ongoing provision of health and welfare services for women and children from the interwar period.

							Heritage Inventory identifies this entry as 9-15, but there are three separate properties/buildings, all blocks of flats designed to look like large Tudor Revival houses. The significant property is no 9-11, which is externally intact. The adjoining buildings are at 13 and 15 and have been modified, but could be investigated for their contributory grading. See the Council citation for 13-15 Alexandra Avenue for more information.

The corner is sharp, resulting in the building having an unusual wedge shaped footprint, with a chamfered corner entrance. Notable features include the post-supported verandah which returns around the corner; the distinct residential entrance bay which reads as a two-storey terrace complete with first floor verandah with ironwork balustrade and frieze; intact shop front; and narrow pedimented parapet to the chamfered corner.

						A modest single-storey weatherboard early Victorian cottage. It has a very simple form, with transverse gable roof, which retains early corrugated iron cladding, simple verandah awning, and central entrance flanked by timber-framed sash windows. Other early elements include chimney and timber verandah posts. It is a rare example of a relatively intact early Victorian timber residence.

100728	Bank House	11-19 Bank Place MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO503	Bank Place Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	Bank House. c.1903, designed by Nahum Barnett in the Romanesque style. Originally three-storeys but with levels added in 1925-6. The building displays Barnett's typical tall arched fenestration and bold Romanesque arcading at ground floor level, with deeply foliated capitals and bold forms. Important component of Bank Place. Has a 'Notable Building' citation.

100851	Batman Hill Apartments	55-67 Batman Street WEST MELBOURNE VIC 3003	HO770	33-53 Batman Street, West Melbourne	D	Upgraded	Significant	A four-storey brick Edwardian warehouse, constructed in c. 1910 for Keep Bros. & Wood, merchants and manufacturers. The former warehouse, now converted to residential use, is a substantial red brick building with contrasting render banding and parapet and has a dominant street presence. It is distinguished by heavy brick pilasters dividing window bays, with the two end bays defined by narrow top level round arched windows and pediments. Also of note is the central entablature with expressed lettering "KEEP BROS AND WOOD PTY LTD". Some steel-framed balconies have been added to the facade as part of the residential conversion, but these do not detract from the building's impressive presence. The building also has historical importance for its association with the industrial development in West Melbourne.

101142	The Walk Arcade	309-325 Bourke Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO509	Post Office Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	The significant grading applies to the buildings at 313-317 and 323-325 Bourke Street, within this group. 313-317 is an interwar building, Diamond House, constructed in 1936 in the Moderne style, and designed by Tompkins Bros architects. It is distinguished by its simple detailing, terracotta tile cladding, and vertical elements including slim pilasters and narrow windows. The parapet steps up to a central high point. The Walk Arcade entry is at ground floor level. 323-325 was constructed in 1924 to a design by Grainger Little and Barlow. It was originally the Public Benefit Bootery (the name remains on the facade) and is a tall elegantly proportioned rendered building with a classically ordered facade (base, middle and top components). It is distinguished by its rusticated banding, columns and pilasters which divide the facade into three bays, and tall bands of multi-paned steel windows which stretch to just below the parapet. The Public Benefit Bootery were purveyors of one priced boots. It relates closely to the adjoining 327-329 Bourke Street.
101143	Deva House	327-329 Bourke Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO509	Post Office Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	Deva House was constructed in 1925 to a design by Harry Norris. It is in the Neo Grecian style, with a classically ordered facade (base, middle and top components). Details of note include columns which engage with the entablature to top the bottom section of the facade, simply detailed windows to the long middle section of the facade, and a top section with elaborate balustrading to windows and 'DEVA HOUSE' name panel, rising through to the heavily corniced parapet. The building relates closely to the adjoining 323-325 Bourke Street.

The contributory grading applies to the interwar building on the north side of the block, which retains an original facade to the rear of the property to Little Bourke. Regarding the Target frontage to Bourke Street, this has been reclad to conceal two earlier building facades. The full extent of what survives beneath the cladding is not known. According to Melbourne Heritage Action, the two facades are associated with (1) the former Hoyts Deluxe Cinema (later the 'Esquire'), designed by architect William Pitt, and opened in 1915; and (2) the Art Deco Coles Store designed by Harry Norris and which opened as Mantons in 1937 and was extended in 1955 in a matching style. The two facades were clad in about 1977. If they do survive and are revealed, then the heritage value of the Target frontage to Bourke Street should be reassessed.

101219	The Paramount	The Paramount 100-116 Bourke Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO507	Little Bourke Street Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	This address is the Paramount Building in Bourke Street, which is not of heritage value. The significant grading applies to the c.1905 building to the rear of the property to Little Bourke, east end of the block, which retains an original facade. The c.1905 building was a furniture warehouse established by a leading Melbourne furniture manufacturer of the day, Lew Tye Shing. While the majority of this building has been demolished, with its original extent now occupied by the Paramount development, the red brick facade to Bourke Street is highly distinctive, rising some three-storeys. It is divided into five vertical arched window bays by brick pilasters, the bays further defined by stepped reveals. The windows also have heavily ornamented rendered spandrels. The top of the building has a heavy brick cornice, supported by finely detailed brick brackets; the cornice returns around the building sides.

Historically significant for its association with the Ukrainian community of Melbourne, which was involved in designing and building the church, and evidence of post-war migration. Cruciform in plan with a dome above the transept, aisles to either side of nave adopt an arcaded form with stained glass to their upper sections. The building is approached from the north-west, narfex is expressed as a tall arcaded form, with formal arrangement of stairs to a grand arcaded entrance, distinguished by more elaborate stained glass to the upper with an abstract brick pattern. The church has a sculpural prescence in the street and is observed in the round. Rendered dome with a simple arrangement of arcaded windows at its base and incorprates a crucifix at its highest point. No BIF or i-heritage

102064	Harley House	69-73 Collins Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO504	Collins East Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Harley House, constructed in 1923, by architects Smith Ogg & Serpell. A major Collins Street commercial corner building, to the important junction of Collins and Exhibition streets. A well executed Greek revival building, successfully elevated to both street aspects. It is finely detailed (cement, window joinery), with high quality finishes, and demonstrative of the conservative approach taken to the redevelopment of Collins Street in the interwar period. Has a 'Notable Building' citation. One of three of a significant commercial group in this section of Collins Street.

102065	Alexandra Club	Alexandra Club 75-81 Collins Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO504	Collins East Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	The Alexandra Club, a Georgian Revival building constructed as offices in the 1930s to a design by architects Anketell & K Henderson. A relatively austere but complete Neo-Georgian design, with high quality finishes including to the ground floor shopfronts. Notable features include unpainted decorative clinker brickwork, fenestrated with window pairs ornamented with bracketed wrought iron balconie, classical treatment of the ground floor facade where papyrus Order pilasters in pairs divide the shopfronts, and balustrade panels to the parapet. Has a 'Notable Building' citation. One of three of a significant commercial group in this section of Collins Street.
102066	Athenaeum Club	Athenaeum Club 83-87 Collins Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO504	Collins East Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	A conservative classical modern rendered building constructed in 1926 to provide clubrooms for the Athenaeum Club, plus retail and office space. Designed by architect Cedrick H Ballantyne, and the home of one of Melbourne's oldest clubs. An elegant building in the Georgian revival manner. Notable features include Greek characteristics such as the parapet key-pattern frieze and cornice, and Georgian characteristics as in the bay windows and balustraded parapets and papyrus border at the first floor level. Has a 'Notable Building' citation. One of three of a significant commercial group in this section of Collins Street.
107625	Regents Gate	51-57 Powlett Street EAST MELBOURNE VIC 3002	HO2	East Melbourne & Jolimont Precinct			Upgraded	Significant	Intact interwar apartment block of 1937 - Regents Gate - with two blocks set out on a 'u' shaped (horse shoe) plan. Is well resolved architecturally, with a symmetrical presentation and simple Georgian detailing. Each block is distinguished by tower elements (expressed stairs) with simple abstracted classical detailing. The whole is enhanced by its landscaped setting. The architect was Bernard Evans.

102138	The Cashmore on Collins	298-304 Collins Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO502	The Block Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	Large brick Edwardian (1904) commercial building, prominently located at the corner of Collins and Elizabeth streets. Designed in the Romanesque style, by architect Nahum Barnet. The building is significant for its bold design, including pressed cement detailing, window bays (semi-hexagonal or semi-circular), corner piers extending to the parapet, and cushion-capital colonnade at the attic and the first floor levels, with similar but larger capitals echoed in the ground level pilasters. Paint has been removed since the 1980s, and importantly the corner window bay and parapet/entablature have been reinstated. Also known as 80-82 Elizabeth Street. Has a 'Notable Building' citation.

102369		100-110 Curzon Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Very substantial fire station complex incorporating several building components including firemen's residences. An evolved complex with Victorian and Edwardian forms. The Curzon Street frontage is red brick with contrasting render bands, retains fire truck entry to internal courtyard, which in turn is flanked by what is understood to be residential units. Very unusual in the metropolitan context.

							Early interwar flat block, by architect Walter Butler. It displays an unusual mix of domestic Australian vernacular of the interwar period, including classical details such as per the porte cochere, doric columns to balconies and greek motif to paving. The chimneys are elaborately detailed in red brickwork reminiscent of Arts and Crafts design.

102615		35 Drummond Street CARLTON VIC 3053	HO1	Carlton Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Early Victorian two-storey rendered dwelling with a simple corniced parapet, which is elevated above street level and accessed by bluestone steps. The terraced front garden and elevation of the building contribute to its prominence in the street, although of a more simple design when compared to the terraces to the south; the austere design is reflective of the building's early date. The verandah has been reinstated with a sympathetic form.

102890		438-444 Dryburgh Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Very substantial Edwardian dwelling oriented to its corner location, incorporating typical diagonal planning and gabled wings addressing both street frontages. It has complex hipped and gabled roof forms with state cladding and other typical but finely executed Edwardian detailing, including a return verandah.

102891		434 Dryburgh Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	One of three adjoining red brick Edwardian terraces. A distinctive design incorporating steeply pitched transverse gable roof form, ending in a distinctive north gable end to Erskine Street. The latter is distinguished by contrasting bands of brick and render to the expressed chimney and striking 'eyebrow' arched detailing to the window form. The frontage to the Dryburgh Street incorporates different detailing to the central cottage with a gabled verandah with timber arched fretwork, flanked by contrasting timber verandah to the end dwellings. Possibly designed by architect Robert Haddon.

102979		1 Durham Street KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	One of six modest Victorian single-storey rendered dwellings in a largely intact terrace row. Gain significance from their consistent form and presentation. Each pair shares a rounded central pediment to the parapet (three pediments across the row). This detail is repeated in the grander terrace row at 45-59 Gower Street, located around the corner. This row, together with that of Gower Street, provides evidence of localised late nineteenth century development, and the speculative endeavours of TP Hughes, the builder and owner of both terrace rows.

103380		43 Epsom Road KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO230	43 Epsom Road, Kensington	C	Upgraded	Significant	Significant grading applies to corner shop only, of c. 1879, which is a relatively early shop in Kensington. It is a single-storey weatherboard building with an unusual double-gabled roof form, which retains its original shopfront and skillion-roofed verandah supported on chamfered timber posts. Historically, it is an important remnant of the earliest phase of development of this part of Kensington, and a relatively rare Victorian building west of Epsom Road.

103402	Town Hall Hotel	33 Errol Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	A two-storey hotel building dating from the c. 1870s, with alterations in the early twentieth century. The building is distinguished by a bluestone ground floor level treatment, possibly dating from the mid-late twentieth century, and a c. 1920s makeover of a rendered and upper level with open arcading forming a balcony, with recessed window openings, and heavy piers defining each open bay. These piers rise through to form the parapet, which also features cast iron balustrading, pediment and nameplate "TOWN HALL HOTEL", named after the nearby town hall. The hotel retains its nineteenth century carriageway, and a remnant rusticated pilaster with moulded detailing. The hotel has historical associations with the commercial centre of North Melbourne and the site of the Hotham town hall at the intersection of Erroll and Queensberry streets.

This building is known as the Lithuanian Club, constructed in 1898 as new premises (shop/warehouse) for Fitzgerald brothers, Drapers, to a design by architect Harry Gibbs. In 1941, it was adapted by the Methodist Church as an assembly hall/community centre. The building, while over-painted and with a non-original verandah, is still an imposing two-storey commercial building in the Errol Street context. It has been altered at ground floor level, but retains a largely intact first floor façade with large arched openings, and ornate detailing including a pedimented parapet. An early historic image shows the original red brick and render expression, with original relief signage. The 1898 date represents a relative early use in Melbourne of the 'blood and bandages' detailing.

103933	McDonald House	165 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	McDonald House, interwar warehouse, c.1924, of austere design but with eclectic details. Architects were Roberston & Marks. A narrow and slender, rendered building, with a distinctive ground floor entrance bay with Greek key frieze above. Notable features include sparsely applied ornament, centred multi-pane windows, and an overall form following that of the Italian Renaissance palazzo with podium and attic ends to the main body of the building. Stylistically, the design's detailing belongs in the Neo-Grecian or Greek revival period of the early 1920s. Company names panels flank the window at first floor level, and down the side of the building to Hosier Lane.

The five storey facade is classically ordered, distinguished by red face brick with contrasting render. Pilasters rise through the facade, stretching through to the pedimented parapet, and dividing the facade into three bays. Windows are variously square and rounded headed. The building entrance is elevated.
103936		179-181 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	Early interwar commercial building, architect unknown. The five storey facade is classically ordered, distinguished by red face brick with contrasting render. Pilasters rise vertically through the facade, stretching through to the pedimented parapet, and dividing the facade into three bays. Windows are variously square and rounded headed. The building entrance is elevated.

103937		183-185 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	1924 concrete commercial building, of 6-7 levels, by Tompkins Bros architects. This is an austere but well resolved design, with minimal detail but retaining the classically ordered composition of base (rusticated), pilastered central component rising in three divisions to the entablature at the top. Adaptation to residential use has involved the removal of glazing to the corner window bays.
103938	Adelphi Hotel	Adelphi Hotel 187 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	The Adelphi Hotel, historically Yoffa House. Built 1937-8, architect J Plottel. An extremely complete and successful example of multi-storey commercial Moderne design, which achieves much from its narrow frontage and coloured terracotta facing. Notable features include an elaborate/high standard design of rendered surfaces, 'architectural terracotta' applied to the facade, and horizontal metal-framed window bands.

103943	Punt Hill Apartments	Punt Hill Apartments 267-275 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	Large rendered Victorian warehouse, by architects Reed Smart Tappin, c. 1899. A rather austere and conservative Italian Renaissance design, but massive in size with repetitive classical detailing. The latter includes dividing string and cornice moulds and a gabled pediment at the parapet. Windows are timber-framed in six-lights and subtle Tuscan order capitals have been applied to the dividing pilasters. Has a 'Notable Building' citation.

103948	Lane Centre	325-331 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	A large five storey Edwardian warehouse, c. 1907, to a design by Tompkins Bros architects, in the Romanesque mode. Although overpainted it retains notable elements including original display windows at ground floor level, and a facade composition of two narrow entrance bays with timber-framed bayed windows, flanking a major four-arch central bay with stretched arched windows, an attic level, and rusticated base levels.
103949		333 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	A five-storey store and office building built on a narrow frontage in 1912, designed by Tompkins Bros architects. Notable features include an elaborate/high standard design of cement rendered surfaces, a shop front, pilasters rising through the upper levels to form narrow vertical window bays, and stylised pilaster capitals at the parapet cornice. The base level has rusticated detailing, and with an asymmetrical entrance with a bracketed hood.

103951	Reid House	341-347 Flinders Lane MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO506	Flinders Lane Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	This warehouse and showroom building was erected in 1908 - 1909 to a design of Bates Peebles & Smart. It is a five-storey iron-framed rendered brick building in an austere Modern Renaissance revival mode, with large window areas set between rusticated (giant Order) pilasters, and a dominant cornice line with a plain entablature. The entrance bay is distinguished by an ornate rendered surround with fluted detailing.

The building is an elaborate / high standard design of cement rendered surfaces. The upper levels have Italian Renaissance Palazzo inspired fenestration, with a finely graduated scale to each successive storey. Deep cornice brackets to the parapet are distinctive. Alterations, executed in prismatic terracotta faience, have changed the ground level.

104014	Port Phillip Arcade	228-236 Flinders Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO505	Flinders Gate Precinct	D		Upgraded	Significant	Port Phillip Arcade, located between Flinders Street and Flinders Lane, opened in 1961, designed by architect JFW Ballantyne. The National Trust report on modernist buildings in CBD notes that this is 'exemplary' and retains original mural signage to centre panel to Flinders Street. Ballantyne worked in the office of Walter Burley Griffin and Marion Mahoney Griffin. Historically significant as an updated version of Melbourne's 19th-century tradition of retail arcades, including providing a pedestrian link between streets. Also notable for bringing back small shops to the city centre, after the rise of department stores. This point was made at the time of its opening. The building has not been inspected so the extent of original fabric to the shopfronts and interior arcade elements has not been confirmed.
104015		222-224 Flinders Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO505	Flinders Gate Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	Early Victorian bluestone (overpainted facade), 1850s, three storeys, adjoins Young & Jacksons Hotel. Has dressed and quarry-faced stone facade, a parapet, rubble-stone side walls and arched openings with keystones and quoins. One of the most complete of the early stone warehouses in the city.

							This block of flats was constructed in c. 1942, as part of the redevelopment of the former J Main and Son iron foundry site between George Street and Wellington Parade. It was designed by architect Illiffe Anderson, who also designed the adjacent building and the group of similar flat blocks in Garden Avenue. The building was originally known as Wiluna Flats. It is associated with the Garden Avenue development, which is a unique example of a 1930s streetscape of mostly three-storey flat blocks in East Melbourne. This is one of several flat blocks of this period located outside Garden Avenue, but concentrated in this area of East Melbourne which in turn was associated with the former foundry site and railway cutting. As a group the blocks gain significance from their complementary interwar styling and details. They are also demonstrative of the growing popularity of flat block developments in this period in East Melbourne. Also see Council citations for flat blocks in Garden Avenue.

104297	Bradoc House	32-38 George Street EAST MELBOURNE VIC 3002	HO2	East Melbourne & Jolimont Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	An interwar flat block, by architect P J O'Connor. It has a distinctive building form including unusual central tower element associated with a diagonal elevated entrance, and a basement level. The detailing shows Mediterranean influences, drawing on Spanish sources, including well resolved brickwork contrasting with rendered surfaces.

104309		31-37 Gipps Street EAST MELBOURNE VIC 3002	HO2	East Melbourne & Jolimont Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	This is an intact row of four rendered two-storey terraces, constructed in 1869 for David Lumsden (Burchett index), known as 'Albert Terrace'. The row is distinguished by simple detailing, albeit incorporating quoining to the first floor facades, delineating each dwelling; and fine quality ironwork decoration to the verandahs to ground floors only. The row is also a significant component of the development which addresses Darling Square.

104394	Hughendon Terrace	45-59 Gower Street KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	Intact row of eight two-storey rendered residences, constructed in 1888. Gain significance from their consistent form and presentation. Notable features include verandah decoration and a high standard of cement render detailing, including to windows. Each pair shares a rounded central pediment to the parapet (four pediments across the row). This detail is repeated in the more modest residences at 1-11 Durham Street, located around the corner. This row, together with that of Durham Street, provides evidence of localised late nineteenth century development, and the speculative endeavours of TP Hughes, the builder and owner of both terrace rows. With the other substantial terrace row to the south at 61-83 Gower Street, this row also provides evidence of the boom period in Kensington as strongly evidenced in this area of Gower Street.

Grading input by LC.

105636	The Leveson	The Leveson 46-50 Leveson Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Two-storey Victorian brick hotel, which also incorporated a ground floor shop, and first floor hall, constructed in c. 1872. The hotel was originally known as the El Dorado Hotel, and appears to have occupied both ground and first floor levels at what was known as no. 50 at the northern end of the building. The public meeting hall known as Victoria Hall appears to have occupied the upper level of the southern two-thirds of the building, at nos 46-48. It was used for a variety of purposes in the 1870s including meetings of ratepayers, the Hotham Reform League and other societies. By the early 1900s, it was occupied by the Speedwell Bicycle Club while the shop at no. 46 was occupied by a painter (Sands & McDougall directory, 1901). The building is distinguished by its simply decorated, asymmetrical facade, with two side entrances (to the hotel and ground floor shop) and a central entrance, presumably to the former Victoria Hall. The facade features a balustraded parapet, with central arched pediment, dentilation to the cornice, simple moulded stringcourse and window surrounds, and repeated medallion motif at ground floor. The building has significance historically as a place of public meeting, and architecturally as an example of a Victorian hotel which is not located on a corner site.

105830	Liverpool Chambers	43 Little Bourke Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO500	Bourke Hill Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	This is a three-storey former police station constructed in 1888 to the design of the Public Works Department (PWD). It originally had lockups located to the rear of the site. A three storey red and cream brick Italian Renaissance Revival design with a hipped roof. The main façade is comprised of three bays, with windows to the side bays that frame the protruding central bay. There are notable cement rendered dressings over the segmental arched windows. The dressings are medieval in character. (Bourke Hill precinct review by Trethowan).

106229		246-252 Lygon Street CARLTON VIC 3053	HO1	Carlton Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Unusual detached two-storey Victorian villa, set back from Lygon Street and with the original or early palisade fence. The building retains its slate cladding to the hipped roof form, brackets to the eaves and corniced chimneys. The verandah has been added since 1985 but in a sympathetic style and in the same location as the original return verandah. The large villa provides evidence of the former residential character of this part of Lygon Street, although diminished by non-original verandah, the original form is evident.
106230		242-244 Lygon Street CARLTON VIC 3053	HO1	Carlton Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Two of a row of four former terrace dwellings. The two-storey rendered Victorian terrace is distinguished by unusually deep setbacks from Lygon Street, original cast iron palisade fence with masonry piers, finely detailed moulded ornamentation, and the prominent parapet that retains urns and a rounded pediment to the centre of the terrace. The terrace provides evidence of the former residential character of this part of Lygon Street.

106256		11-13 MacArthur Place South CARLTON VIC 3053	HO1	Carlton Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Early Victorian two-storey pair of brick and bluestone terrace dwellings, with a rendered central chimney. The building is distinguished by the quoining to window and door openings, and a later Victorian bichrome brick and cast iron verandah added to the front facade. This terrace pair is part of a group of early Victorian dwellings in MacArthur Place, and the streetscape is significant for its early historic character. The visual connection with MacArthur Square is also important.

106257	27-33 MacArthur Place South CARLTON VIC 3053	HO1	Carlton Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	A row of four single-storey cottages with slate clad transverse gable roof forms and brick chimneys. The row of three cottages at nos 27 - 31 are rendered and the verandahs have been reconstructed in a sympathetic style (based on the verandah to no 33). The cottage at no 33 is a separate double-fronted building of face brick with rendered quoins and moulded frames to window openings. While the verandahs are not original and the row has been overpainted, the early Victorian character remains. This row is part of a group of early Victorian dwellings in MacArthur Place, and the streetscape is significant for its early historic character. The visual connection with MacArthur Square is also important.

107094		19 O'Shanassy Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	A two-storey brick Victorian residence (c. mid-1880s) with two-storey verandah and large arched pediment to parapet, with name plate "AVON HOUSE". It is historically associated with the adjacent no. 21, a former warehouse. The colocation of the buildings is important: no. 19 was the residence of George Martin, owner of the Hotham Boot Company which operated from no. 21 (Sands & McDougall, 1890). Although overpainted, the connection between the two buildings is evident, and demonstrates small-scale manufacturing in the suburb.
107095	Potter House	21 O'Shanassy Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	A two-storey brick Victorian former warehouse (c. mid-1880s). It is distinguished by a large arched pediment to parapet and is historically associated with the adjacent residence at no. 21. The colocation of the buildings is important: no. 19 was the residence of George Martin, owner of the Hotham Boot Company which operated from no. 21 (Sands & McDougall, 1890). 107096		39 O'Shanassy Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	One of a pair of red brick, gable roofed former hall buildings of the 1910s, now converted to residential use. The pair are historically associated with the Salvation Army complex of buildings, constructed as Young People's Halls in 1917, with the earlier barracks of 1883 fronting Arden Street. Although some alterations have been undertaken, the building at no. 39 retains Gothic timber barge boards and finials at gable ends, contrasting render quoining, lintels and sills, nameplate and central entry.

107360	Camden	11-15 Park Street SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	c.1940 Moderne style three-storey flat block, with a symmetrical composition, and central entrance bay with expressed stair well above. Notable features include the unpainted decorative brickwork, curved front with steel windows, and Art Deco detailing. Part of a significant group of interwar flat block developments concentrated at the south end of Park Street and in the adjoining Toorak Road West.

107361		19 Park Street SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	C.1913 early flat block by architects Godfrey & Spowers. It adopted the principles of nineteenth century terrace housing with a tall narrow form. Distinctive elements include bowed balustrades to balconies, which utilise basket work patterning. The height of the building, five levels plus rooftop, distinguishes it in the streetscape.

107381	Rycroft Hall and Verona	109-113 Park Street SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Two interwar flat blocks on this property, of 1928. Notable features include an elaborate/high standard design of cement rendered surfaces, and fine use of bevelled and decorative glass with steel framed windows. Verona is a narrow building, and one of a pair with the adjoining wider Rycroft Hall, with both displaying similar details. The plan form of Verona is an important part of the scheme with cars directed under a portal to the rear of the site. The space between the two blocks forms a formal front garden.

							School buildings from 1911 and 1948, with 1930 gate. The site includes a red brick double-gabled red brick school in the Federation style, which appears to be substantially externally intact. This is a significant building. The principal building facing Punt Road (c.1948) is built on the bluestone footings of the first school designed by Baston in 1877, which was destroyed by fire in 1946. The 1948 building is modest, rendered and simply detailed in the Moderne style; it is contributory. The covered gateway entrance to Punt Road is unusual, and is a brick WWI memorial, which includes a pair of fine quality brass nonour boards, marble name panels in the floor, commemorating the fields of war, and matching brick pillars to the adjacent fencing. It is contributory.

107986		566-574 Queensberry Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	This property comprises two, two-storey rendered Victorian commercial buildings at nos 566-568 and no. 574 at the corner of Queensberry and Curzon streets. The pair of shops at nos 566 and 568 were constructed in 1884 for J Orange and are distinguished by simple detailing including round-headed arched windows at first floor level, with moulded arched detailing and stringcourse, and parapet with pediment to each shop with nameplate "J ORANGE A.D. 1884", scrolls and orbs. The easternmost shop retains early shopfront with timber baseboard and recessed entry. The corner building features tiled early twentieth century shopfronts, upper level square headed windows, balustraded parapet, with orbs, scrolls and an entablature at the chamfered corner with floral motifs in relief and vermiculated panels. The pair have a strong Victorian commercial street presence, and appear to retain early verandahs with cast iron friezes and posts.

108899		660-676 Spencer Street WEST MELBOURNE VIC 3003	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	A substantial two-storey rendered brick Victorian residence, built as the parsonage for the West Melbourne Primitive Methodist Chapel, which was established at the tringular site in c. early 1870s. The parsonage was constructed in 1884 (North Melbourne Advertiser, 6 June 1884, p. 3). The residence is stepped plan in form to the corner, with a bluestone base. It is distinguished by very simple detailing, which is consistent with its historical association with the Methodist Church. Although overpainted, it is generally intact, with details evident including brackets to the cornice, stringcourses, and rendered chimneys. It has historical significance for its association with an early Primitive Methodist church in Melbourne.

Three four-roomed brick cottages were constructed in c. 1890 for owners 'Railway Empire', and were occupied by people whose trade was also listed as 'railway empire'. Details of the 'Railway Empire' are unknown, but it likely relates to the railway lines which are in close proximity to Tennyson Street. This is one of three distinctive single-storey Victorian terraces in a row. No 80 is the only one which retains its unpainted brick facade, demonstrating some elaborate bi-chrome brickwork, including to the pediment in the parapet. The latter in particular distinguish the row. The two flanking terraces have matching parapets, while the central one differs. All display unusually elaborate and quite rare 'oriental' detailing, including to the elegantly high central pediments.

109518	St Margarets	100W-104W Toorak Road SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Also known as 2 Park Street. Very substantial three-storey interwar block of flats, St Margarets, located at the corner (east side) of Park Street and Toorak Road West. Incorporates a large three-storey circular tower with conical roof to the corner, flanked by wings addressing the south and west. The wings each have an entrance bay, with a narrow vertical window above. The roof is hipped and comes down to gabled bays; there are large stepped chimneys. The bricks are predominantly cream, with contrasting render bands. Part of a significant group of interwar flat block developments concentrated in Toorak Road West and the south end of Park Street.
109519	Taurea	90W-92W Toorak Road SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Three-storey interwar flat block, c.1937, by architects Gawler and Drummond. This is a rendered building, with a well resolved symmetrical form incorporating a prominent central entrance/stairwell bay which sits forward of the front. The central bay extends to the roof, and is emphasised by three narrow vertical glass box windows. Balconies with curved balustrades flank the bay. Part of a significant group of interwar flat block developments concentrated in Toorak Road West and the south end of Park Street.
109520		88W Toorak Road SOUTH YARRA VIC 3141	HO6	South Yarra Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Substantial 1911 rendered villa incorporating Arts & Crafts elements, designed by architect C E Crawford. 109711	317-319 Victoria Street WEST MELBOURNE VIC 3003	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	Two-storey stuccoed brick early Victorian shop and residence, built in 1869 on a corner site with later timber posted street verandah. It is distinguished by simple detailing including rusticated pilasters to the ground floor on Victoria Street, quoining at upper levels, expressed and bracketed window surrounds and dentillated cornice. The chamfered corner presentation is surmounted by a pediment with flanking scrolls. Although the Eades Place elevation is altered, the presentation to Victoria Street is generally intact, and the building is a substantial early building in the Victoria Street context.

The upper level features two oriel windows, render detailing including ruling, dentil band stringcourse, slim pilasters, and pedimented parapet with central nameplate "GEORGE HOTEL". No. 578 is a two-storey Victorian commercial building, altered at ground level. It is distinguished by an ornate upper level with decorative moulding including expressed Corinthian order pilasters with capitals, three arched windowers with keystones and parapet with central arched pediment and namplate. Both buildings have a strong street presence in the Victoria Street commercial precinct. Grading input by LC. No BIF or i-heritage.

109824	Ramsden Apartments	Ramsden Apartments 352-362 Victoria Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	Substantial two-storey commercial building of 1887, incorporating five separate shops. The building is distinguished by its symmetrical facade, with pilasters dividing the shops, and each shop featuring paired arched windows with moulded surrounds with keystone, and moulded sills. The parapet is stepped in form, with a central pediment with nameplate "RAMSDENS BUILDING'S" flanked by a balustraded parapet bookended by scrolls, with central pediments and nameplates with "ERECTED" and "1887", and the outermost shops with a simple corniced parapet.
109825		328-350 Victoria Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	D	Upgraded	Significant	Very substantial four-storey former Oriental Coffee Palace, opened in 1888, and owned by Alfred Ramsden, who owned the adjacent Ramsden's Buildings. Ramsden developed the coffee palace in time for the International Exhibition of 1888, and it incorporated dining hall, temperance bar, public and private sitting rooms and 75 bedrooms. The building also incorporated four ground floor shops and a carriageway, which remain intact. The building is a substantial rendered building, with shopfronts with recessed entries at ground floor, paired arched window bays defined by pilasters, with shallow arched windows at the top level. Other details to the facade include moulded and dentilated stringcourses. The bracketed and balustraded parapet and central arched pediment have been reinstated since the 1980s. The building is significant as one of the largest coffee palaces constructed in Melbourne, and has value for its historical associations with a North Melbourne land speculator, who was declared insolvent during the 1890s depression, and with the late nineteenth century temperance movement. Grading input by LC. No BIF, limited i-heritage.

The row, with transverse gable roof, is distinguished by its fine use of brickwork, including quoining to window and door openings, and to wing walls. Other details of note include niches flanking windows, vermiculated panels, rosettes and brackets to the eaves, the use of urns to party walls, and vermiculation to the chimneys. The cast iron front fences curve to the recessed entrance gate. There has been some painting of brickwork, alterations to the frieze at no. 28 and the loss of the chimney at no. 30, but the row is otherwise intact.

501647		68-74 Arden Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C		Upgraded	Significant	Single-storey rendered bluestone, gable-roofed Salvation Army barracks of 1883. The building is simply detailed, with quoining to edges and to the arched window and door openings, slim moulded details, simple parapet with arched pediment at the apex with dateplate, and the Salvation Army insignia at the top of the facade. The Salvation Army expanded the complex through to O'Shanassy Street (nos 37 and 39) in 1917 with the addition of two buildings for a Young People's Hall. It is reportedly one of the oldest Salvation Army halls or barracks in Australia (National Trust). The building has historical significance for its demonstration of the early involvement of the Salvation Army in North Melbourne.

524845	37 O'Shanassy Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	One of a pair of red brick, gable roofed former hall buildings of the 1910s, now converted to residential use. The pair are historically associated with the Salvation Army complex of buildings, constructed as Young People's Halls in 1917, with the earlier barracks of 1883 fronting Arden Street. Although some alterations have been undertaken, the building at no. 39 retains Gothic timber barge boards and finials at gable ends, contrasting render quoining, lintels and sills, nameplate and central entry.

568596		517-519 MacAulay Road KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	No 517 is significant as one of four two-storey Victorian shops at 511-517 Macauley Road. The row is distinguished by intact first floor facades, including classical detailing to piers and pilasters, and fine dentilated detail to window heads. 511-513 retains evidence of early colours and finishes; 517 has an original shopfront. The four shops are grouped in pairs, with a stepped triangular pedimented parapet topping each pair. The tall parapets give the group prominence in the commercial streetscape. 519 is a separate building of contributory grading.

This property comprises three dwellings located within two large gabled building forms, reading as a pair of substantial interwar villas. Originally brick with contrasting roughcast rendering, now overpainted, the buildings are finely resolved in terms of their design and detailing. They are enhanced by their prominent gables, large leadlight window bays with shingled aprons, and elegant tapering chimneys.

602026		16 Molesworth Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Substantial two-storey rendered Victorian shop and residence on a corner site, constructed in 1883. The building is distinguished by its chamfered corner and splayed early street verandah, with solid frieze and timber posts, its tiled interwar shop front, and simple detailing including bracketed eaves and expressed lettering at the top of the chamfer "1883 J CHEESE". J Cheese operated a butcher shop from the premises (Sands & McDougall directory 1890). The building is a prominent presence in the streetscape and is a substantial former commercial building in a predominantly residential area. Grading input by LC. No BIF or i-heritage.

The C or contributory grading is believed to have applied to the previous building on the site. Making an assessment of the significance of this particular post-modern building requires a more comprehensive assessment of similar commercial buildings in the ccz, for comparative analysis. Unlike the 1960s and 1970s office buildings, relatively little is known of these 1980s and early 1990s post-modern commercial/office buildings as a genre. A city-wide survey and assessment to identify the most significant would greatly assist.

614208		5 Leveson Street NORTH MELBOURNE VIC 3051	HO3	North & West Melbourne Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	A two-storey rendered early Victorian residence, of c.1858 with alterations in the 1880s. The building is distinguished by its simple early form and detailing, including its construction to the property boundary, recessed central entry, simple moulded stringcourse and cornice, with a pediment on the plain parapet, with scrolls. The pediment and stucco may have been added in the 1880s. Of additional historical interest, James Kearney, who prepared the map of 'Melbourne and its suburbs' in 1855, owned and occupied the residences between 1880 and c. 1895.

102067	101 Collins Street	89-105 Collins Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO504	Collins East Precinct		Upgraded	Significant	This 1990 building, designed by Denton Corker Marshall and Johnson Burgee, is known as 101 Collins Street, and is a very highly regarded and documented modern skyscraper. The donor contributory grading is believed to have applied to the c.1960 building on the site (demolished in 1988). The current building was based on the New York skyscraper model. The five storey podium to Collins Street is regarded as being particularly successful, distinguished by tuscan doric columns and an extravagant foyer.

101220		98 Bourke Street MELBOURNE VIC 3000	HO507	Little Bourke Street Precinct		Upgraded	Significant	The three-storey commercial building at this address is associated with the abutting three-storey corner hotel, of the 1850s and 1880s (top level was added in the 1880s). The two building components are significant to this area of the ccz (at and near the corner of Bourke and Exhibition streets), which retains a collection of mid-nineteenth century commercial buildings. The corner group is Renaissance Revival in style. The upper levels (not ground floor) of 98 Bourke Street are highly intact, notwithstanding later decorative detailing added to the windows (and easily removed).

614859		21-23 Wight Street KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Victorian church at the corner of Wight and McCracken streets, with a large gabled form. The building retains its slate roof, albeit modified to accommodate internal adaptation (to residential use), and its original entrance on the west side. While an austere building, the west elevation has fine quality decorative brickwork delineating repetitive Gothic arches across the elevation, and Gothic forms to the window openings.

615227		46 Epsom Road KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Substantial Victorian two-storey rendered commercial building at the corner of Epsom Road and Hopetoun Street. Constructed c.1890. This is a largely externally intact historic shop with attached residence, the latter in a two-storey wing to Hopetoun Street, with its own entrance. The building has a chamfered corner, with shop entrance, and intact rendered first floor facade. The latter has Italianate detailing, carried through to the balustraded parapet. The windows have finely detailed mouldings. A timber posted verandah returns around the corner. The shopfronts appear to be at least in part original.

This brick house and shop appears to have been constructed in two stages for Herbert Parker, who operated a grocery from the premises as early as 1915. This is a distinctive albeit evolved building, located at the corner of McCracken Street and Gordon Crescent, comprising a residence and attached shop. The residence is a red brick Edwardian dwelling, with its side elevation visible to Gordon Crescent, and with a hipped roof form and large rendered chimneys. The front of the dwelling wraps around the corner shop, and comes down to McCracken Street where the elevated entrance and verandah are located. This part of the residence has had an interwar makeover, and is rendered. The corner shop has a separate presentation, with no setback, and the date 'AD 1913' to the prominent curved parapet. This building component is also rendered. The shopfront is original, and retains original glazing including coloured dimple glass to the highlight panes.

616011	482 Macaulay Road KENSINGTON VIC 3031	HO9	Kensington Precinct	C	Upgraded	Significant	Grading input by LC. This is one of a row of two-storey Edwardian brick commercial buildings in Macauley Road, which step down the street to the prominent corner of Macauley Road and Bellair Street. The corner is at the centre of the historic Kensington Village, and is marked by a fine Edwardian commercial building, with a chamfered corner and diagonal tower above. The latter shop , with distinctive green tiling to walls, also retains an original awning with decorative steel brackets. The Macauley Road buildings have some modifications, including to the first floor facades and some over painting of the brickwork, but retain their serpentine parapets. They also gain significance as a group of prominent historic shops in the Village centre. The first floor facades and parapets to the adjoining buildings on Bellair Street match those of the Macauley Road shops.

This is a component of a substantial early twentieth century development on a trinagular site to the corner of Courtney and Howard streets. It incorporates a number of large red brick dwellings including four two-storey terrace houses and a prominent corner building with a gabled form. The buildings have some early Edwardian elements but are otherwise simply detailed. No BIF or i-heritage.
